

Italian Lions have set up an information point and assistance for members and fellow Lions from around the world who decide to come to Rome to celebrate the Jubilee of Mercy established by SS Pope francesco.

The Committee shall publish regularly on the websites of the association (www.lions108l.com www.lions.it) an information sheet with news related to official events of the Jubilee, the meetings of the Lions Club of Rome, the historical cultural routes city and a list of commercial shops availabbe to practice particularly favorable conditions to the Lions.

It 's always available every day, from February 1st, the phone number (+39.06.40402894), from 9 to 20 (Central Europe Time), dealing with all information, support and emergencies.

We can plan a meeting with Lions Italian Committee at the Hotel Antico Palazzo Rospigliosi in Rome, via the Liberian 21, next to the Papal Basilica of St. Mary Major, near the Termini train station.

Throughout the whole period of the Jubilee Association of Hoteliers of Rome (Federalberghi) and the Association of Travel Agents (Seadam) have established websites where access to discounted rates by qualifying as Lions.

The website Federalberghi (<http://www.roma.italyhotels.it>) allows for better conditions for overnight stays, entering the code convention LIONSCLUB

The website of Travel Agencies (<http://www.giubilions.it/>) will provide support to Lions for every need (travel, accommodation, tourism and culture) with the list of affiliated hotels, restaurants, excursions to Rome, museums, exhibitions and events in 2016 as well as Links (public transport, places of interest).

For any suggestion, request for information or support can be sent by email to: giampaolo.coppola@lions108l.com

We all of the Committee, we look forward with a spirit of brotherhood and sincere friendship.
